

Gail the Planigale

Meet Gail the Planigale! Gail may be tiny, but she is a very good hunter. She eats insects, spiders and even small lizards!

The good thing about being small is that she can hide in the cracks of the soil when the floodplain is dry. This keeps her safe and warm at night.

